Revenue & Genl Departments

Sir,

I am directed to state that, owing to the delay in printing the records in cases in which accused persons are sentenced to death, the hearing of appeals in such cases has had to be adjourned from time to time. For instance, the records in Criminal appeals Nos 13 and 30 of 1903-4 were sent to the press on 21st August and the printed books were received only on the 31st Ultimo

I am to solicit the sanction of Government to have the records printed elsewhere upon the condition of the printing charges being paid by Government - owing to pressure of ~~other~~ work, the Government press finds it inconvenient to deliver the printed books within a month from the date of sending the records.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
Your most Obedient Servant;
